My Progress

★ Find last year's Career Action Plan and write down the goals that you achieved. If you did not achieve all of the goals then write down something else that you achieved last year.

My goal or achievement from last year	What I actually did	How I felt after I did it

★ Have the interests, values and skills you wrote in the "My Profile" section of your Career Action Plan changed much from what you wrote last year? If they have changed a lot, it's likely that you may want to achieve different goals this year.

★ Think about the most important things you have learned about yourself since last year and how this changes your goals and future plans.

The most important thing I learnt about myself last year	How knowing this will change my goals

My Goals and Plans

Career choice	Personal requirements ★ Check the Job Guide.	Education and training ★ Check the Job Guide.

★ Goals are things that you want to achieve in the future. They are things that will help you to be prepared and ready for change at school or in your life. It is important that you think about goals early because then you can work out how to achieve them. Thinking about goals means that you will be prepared to study the subjects you like, do the types of occupations you prefer, and keep your future options open. If you meet a goal throughout the year, set another new one for yourself – maybe a more challenging one.

- ★ Think about goals that relate to education/training and employment. For example, an education/training goal might be to start a school-based apprenticeship, and an employment goal might be to do work experience in an area you are interested in.
- ★ Think about why the goals you have made are important. For example, starting an apprenticeship means you can still get a secondary school qualification while training for employment, and doing work experience in an area you are interested in may lead to being offered a job that you would love to do.
- ★ Think about how long it will take you to achieve your goals. Some goals are short-term which means you can achieve them in a few weeks. Some goals are long-term which means it might take a year or more before you can achieve them.

Education and Training Goals

What is my goal?	How will I do it?	Why is it important?	When will I do it by?

Employment Goals

★ You may need some help from allies to achieve your goals. Allies are people who can help you in different ways, like family members, community members, teachers, friends and other people you trust.

Who can help me?	How can they help me?

★ The skills a person needs to do in a job are called work-related skills. When you are thinking about jobs you are interested in, you might want to consider the work-related skills needed to do that job. For example, following instructions, working in a team with others, being organised, and using technology are all examples of work-related skills.

My Review

★ Throughout the year it is important for you to spend some time thinking about the goals and plans you set for yourself, and what it was like planning for different options relating to your career goals and plans. Reflecting on what you wrote in your Career Action Plan throughout the year, you might need to include some new things in your next Career Action to help you to achieve your long-term goals.

Education/training goals I have achieved so far	When I achieved them
Employment goals I have achieved so far	When I achieved them
Goals I need to do further work on in order to achieve	Who can help me
New education/training goals I want to achieve	Achievement date
New employment goals I want to achieve	Achievement date

★ Look over what you wrote as your preferred career choices in the “My Goals and Plans” section of this Career Action Plan. Are you still interested in doing the same careers when you finish school? If not, write down one new career you are interested in, and the subjects you need to do next year to help you prepare for that career.

New career I am interested in	What I need to do next year to prepare for this career, including learning new skills and taking certain subjects
